

Challenge Task Supplement

The Salvation Army Obedience At Home

Bronze/Crest

Dear Family,

Being obedient at home is an important part of being a Junior Soldier. In their promise every Junior Soldier says, 'I will be His loving and obedient child'.

We believe this to be so important that it is a challenge task for both the Bronze Award (earned by the youngest) and the Crest Award (earned by the most senior Junior Soldiers).

_____ is working towards the _____ award. If you believe she/he is making a sincere effort to be obedient at home, please sign and return this form to me.

If you have any difficulties, please talk with me.

_____ Junior Soldier Sergeant Telephone _____

Remembering that _____ is now _____ years of age and that obedience is always important and always difficult, I certify that she/he is obedient at home.

Comments: _____

Signed: _____ Date: _____
Parent/Guardian

The Salvation Army Obedience At School

Dear Teacher

_____ is involved in a training program in The Salvation Army as a 'Junior Soldier'.

As part of this program each boy and girl is expected to be obedient and helpful in his/her everyday life.

I would be grateful if, as his/her class teacher, you would provide a short report or comments on his/her obedience and helpfulness at school.

_____ Junior Soldier Sergeant Date _____

Comments: _____

_____ Teacher Date _____